

Cal State Fullerton's Crime and Intelligence Analysis Certificate provides specialized training in how to identify and define crime trends, problems and patterns, and to use your research and analysis to create tactics and strategies that lead to an effective police response. Students completing the program will also receive a certificate from the California Department of Justice designating them as nationally certified Crime and Intelligence Analysts.

To learn more, please download our Program Guide.