

California State University, Sacramento – Crime and Intelligence Analysis Certificate Program

Sacramento State's Crime and Intelligence Analysis Certificate program focuses on skill development in collecting and analyzing crime data for the forecasting of future crime occurrences. Participants will learn how criminal profiles are developed, document illicit relationships and use statistical techniques to solve crime problems. Upon successful completion of the program, graduates will receive three certificates from the following organizations:

- Sacramento State—for completing the required courses
- California Department of Justice—a designation as Certified Crime and Intelligence Analyst for the State of California
- Association of Law Enforcement Intelligence Units (LEIU)—a nationally recognized certification
